

Burgess Hill Bonfire Society permission form for ages 16-18

To be read and completed by applicant and the parent or guardian of adult members between the ages of 16 to 18.

As a young adult member for Burgess Hill Bonfire Society you will be able to take part in all the activities enjoyed by the Society this includes taking part in bonfire walks throughout Sussex from the beginning of September to the end of November.

Furthermore, being a part to the Society you can help right through the year with fundraising, making torches and other tasks to help with the organisation of our event which is the biggest free event in Burgess Hill every year. You will find that you will make many new friends and hopefully become to feel the comradery of being a bonfire boy/belle(girl).

Although we look out for one another during all activities Burgess Hill Bonfire Society does not take responsibility for any member if they behaviour in an inappropriate or in a lawless fashion, their membership will be evoked in these cases.

As the parent or guardian of I have read and understood the above and give full permission for him/her to become a full adult member of Burgess Hill Bonfire Society Member.
